

The Fight for sector Verena

“On the planet of Sardo IV lies the city Krodon. Formerly one of the major cities on Sardo IV, much of it was destroyed during the great war against the Orcs 40 years ago. Though the Orcs were defeated with the help of the Adapted Astartes, much of Sardo IV still lies in ruins.

Planetary government still holds most of the planet in an orderly grip, but large parts are now ruled by different gangs. Krodon is no different. The inner city is still controlled by Governor Maaz and his Valencian Guard. The outer ring of the city is completely ruled by different gangs however. Rule of specific sectors is constantly changing. The head of a major gang who ruled the Verena sector recently met with an unfortunate accident involving several pounds of explosives. Now other gangs see their chance to claim the riches of this sector for their own. Who will claim this sector? And how long will they keep their prize?”

Time to assemble your gang and earn fame and fortune!
